

Schedule of the webinar Fundamental Concept in Science and Mathematics with Problem Solving and Assessment

Greetings from Bannari Amman Institute of Technology, Erode, TN, India

As per the suggestions and requests from various schools across our country and due to shortage of time for conducting webinars for all the students. We have planned to provide an exclusive webinar on "Fundamental concepts of Science and Mathematics" for VIII, IX, X, XI, and XII standard students. The schedule is provided in the below table.
